There has been a 4% increase in MAAC membership in Saskatchewan in the last year with 298 open members and 23 juniors for a total of 321. The Y.O.R.K.S. club of Yorkton is back up and running as a MAAC affiliated club, Saskatoon has been the recipient of a new field, building, runway and the equipment needed to maintain the new field with Bob Richardt of Saskatoon as the donor.

Zone K's Facebook page has been going over well with a good number of posts and views and if you have any events or news you would like to include, please pass them along.

A review was given of the new MAAC executive.

Other Reports: The Sun City Prop Busters of Estevan are in the process of building a new facility. This initiative will include new buildings, runways, and a race track. Food trucks will be available for any events that the club hosts.

Swift Wings of Swift Current have put together a FPV drone racing course and have received a lot of interest with this. The club is also looking to host an IMAC Pattern contest July 16 & 17, 2016. If you are interested please contact Glen Chase at glen.c@sasktel.net.

The Regina Windy Flyers club have gotten the north/south runway back in use. The club is disappointed with the number of events they hosted this year and looking to improve on this in 2016. They have seen a resurgence of control line models with the club. The Regina Windy Flyers have had success with new car and truck members as they have become an important part of the club rejuvenation.
